

Submitting to the Young Writers Project newspaper series is a two-part process.

Part 1:

1. Log in or Create a new account on this site:

Or

It is important to fill out the account registration form carefully and accurately, as this will allow YWP to contact you in the future if your submission is selected for publication or if there are questions about your account.

Important: If you are under 13, you need to have a parent to sign this form and return it to us before you can use your account. You will receive a notification about our parental/teacher consent form requirement when you register as a new user.

You can download this form by clicking the “click here” link in the registration form itself:

This space is open to students (and teachers) in Vermont and New Hampshire.

All registrations will be verified by YWP administrators. If your information --including your email address -- is inaccurate (unless special arrangements have been made through a school contact with us) your account will be blocked.

Please make sure your information is accurate. We do not share it or make it public. We check new registrations several times each day to verify new accounts.

To create an account on this site you must be 13 years old. If you are younger than 13, click here for parental or teacher consent form.

If you have ANY problems, don't hesitate to email us at webmaster (at) youngwritersproject.org or call us at 802.324-9537, 9538 or 9539. Geoff Gevalt (gg) ywp director

Permission Form

Submitted by ggevalt on Thu, 09/24/2009 - 1:19pm form permission

Federal law governing use of the Internet by minors requires that any student under the age of 13 obtain parental permission to use this site and to supply us with a signed form.

Attached is the permission form to allow a younger student to register and participate on this site. The form also allows younger students to submit work for potential publication.

Please have parents fill out the form and send it to:
